LOCATION DESCRIPTION

Discover the prime location of our property in High Point, NC, a vibrant hub for industrial and manufacturing businesses. Situated in the heart of one of the country's foremost furniture and textile manufacturing regions, the area offers access to major transportation routes and a skilled labor force. Nearby, the High Point Market, the world's largest furnishings industry trade show, attracts a global audience, while the International Home Furnishings Center and Market Square provide unparalleled opportunities for networking and exposure. The property's proximity to these influential industry events and resources makes it an ideal location for businesses looking to thrive in the industrial and manufacturing sector.

High Point offers a cost-effective operating environment supported by a pro-business local government and competitive tax structure. The city has made continued investments in infrastructure and utilities, ensuring reliable services for industrial users with demanding operational needs. Nearby industrial parks and zoning flexibility accommodate a wide range of manufacturing, warehousing, and distribution uses. Tenants also benefit from access to regional workforce training programs and technical colleges that help sustain a steady pipeline of skilled employees. These factors combine to create a stable, efficient setting for industrial tenants focused on long-term success.
