1732 Champa Street is an ideal location for both office and retail due to its placement in the heart of Downtown Denver’s Central Business District, where the city’s highest concentration of employers, residents, and visitors converge. Office users benefit from immediate access to transit, dense professional employment, nearby hotels, and the Auraria higher-education campus, which provides a consistent talent pipeline and supports daytime population. Retail users benefit from heavy foot traffic generated by office workers, residents, tourists, convention activity at the Colorado Convention Center, and major attractions such as the 16th Street Mall, Union Station, Coors Field, and Ball Arena — creating strong demand for food, beverage, service, and experiential retail in a true live-work-play environment.
