LOGISTICS PARK

Discover the perfect blend of convenience and opportunity. This land is positioned between Waller and Hockley Texas, a location that has been deemed "the last frontier for the immediate Houston region". With more than 24 new residential subdivisions in various stages of development, and about 35,000 new homes planned, the areas population is set to double within the next 12-15 years. The median age is 30 and the median household income is $65,000, making this the perfect spot for future growth and destination living. As shown above the area has seen exponential growth with an anticipated 35,000 new homes planned.

THE AERIAL

The location for the 290 Logistics park offers quick access to multiple large freeways in a booming area. The frontage road location also allows for high visibility, ensuring this multi-phase development is the best location for your immediate and future needs.

With solid title commitments and comprehensive environmental studies, this land is primed for vertical development. Key due diligence tasks, including surveys, geotechnical reports, and traffic impact analyses, are complete - ensuring a smooth path forward.

Horizontal design plans are finalized, with permits in place for essential infrastructure like wastewater and water treatment plants. Detention ponds, loop roads, and utilities are approved for the 165 Acre Tract. Vertical development is within reach with construction documents for Speculative Buildings A, B, C & D ready to be issued for permit with Harris County. This offers a swift path to development for qualified users or tenants.
