WILD GOOSE SALOON

11160 S Pikes Peak Dr, Parker, CO 80138

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Nestled just southeast of Denver, Parker has evolved from a small historic town into one of Colorado's most desirable and fastest-growing suburban communities. With strong household incomes, steady residential growth, and a vibrant community culture, Parker presents a compelling opportunity for restaurant investment and long-term success. Parker is known for its affluent, family-oriented population with household incomes well above national averages. Residents prioritize lifestyle, dining, and entertainment, creating consistent demand for high-quality food and beverage establishments.

The community includes a mix of young families, professionals, and established homeowners — a broad and stable customer base that supports both casual and upscale dining concepts. Ongoing residential development and master-planned communities continue to bring new residents into the market. Retail centers, medical offices, and entertainment venues are expanding alongside housing growth, increasing daily traffic and creating complementary business synergy for restaurants.

DESCRIPTION

- Located just 20 miles southeast of downtown Denver, Parker is one of the Denver metro area's fastest-growing and most desirable communities. Known for its strong household incomes, family-friendly neighborhoods, and vibrant small-town atmosphere, Parker offers an ideal setting for entertainment and hospitality concepts.
- The town features a charming and highly active downtown district, anchored by O'Brien Park and the Parker Arts, Culture & Events (PACE) Center, which draw consistent foot traffic year-round through community events, concerts, and festivals. With continued residential growth and a supportive local business environment, Parker presents a prime opportunity for a music venue or bar to thrive in an affluent and expanding market.
