Sprawling income-producing ranch with excellent potential for conservation easement. Row crop and cattle leases produce over $100,000/year. House and environs provide an opportunity for additional rental income or caretaker housing. There are productive Agricultural and separate Residential wells. There are hidden beautiful meadows and seasonal flower patches encircled by oak woodland forest, lots of acreage to explore while land banking and collecting income from this agricultural investment opportunity.

HIP SMALL TOWN, BIG OLD-WEST VIBES

With a thriving food & wine scene and vintage look & feel, Los Alamos—dubbed “Little LA” by those in the know—is perhaps Santa Barbara Wine Country’s best well-kept secret

Burgeoning food, wine, & arts scene plus one-of-a-kind lodging, including the historic 1880 Union Hotel, a Victorian-style bed & breakfast, an inn with a view, and a classic motor court... Buildings old and new house art galleries, antique shops, wine tasting rooms and a surprising variety of restaurants for every type of diner from locavore to carnivore. The Los Alamos Third Saturday Stroll every month offers themed special events. During the last weekend of September, Los Alamos Old Days honors the town’s western heritage with a celebration including arts & crafts fair, BBQ, car show, dance and parade.
