The Location

Situated in the heart of Toronto's vibrant Entertainment District, 137 Peter Street offers a prime retail location with exceptional foot traffic and visibility. Just steps from the most dynamic stretch of Queen Street West, home to premier fashion retailers like Lululemon, Aritzia, Club Monaco, and Brandy Melville, this address benefits from a high-density mix of locals, professionals, and tourists alike.

Directly across the street from Northeastern University's Toronto campus, the Queen Richmond Centre, and the flagship Mountain Equipment Co-op (MEC), the property is ideally placed to capture consistent pedestrian flow from students, office workers, and destination shoppers. Just a short walk south lies King Street West, a busy corridor known for its upscale dining and nightlife.

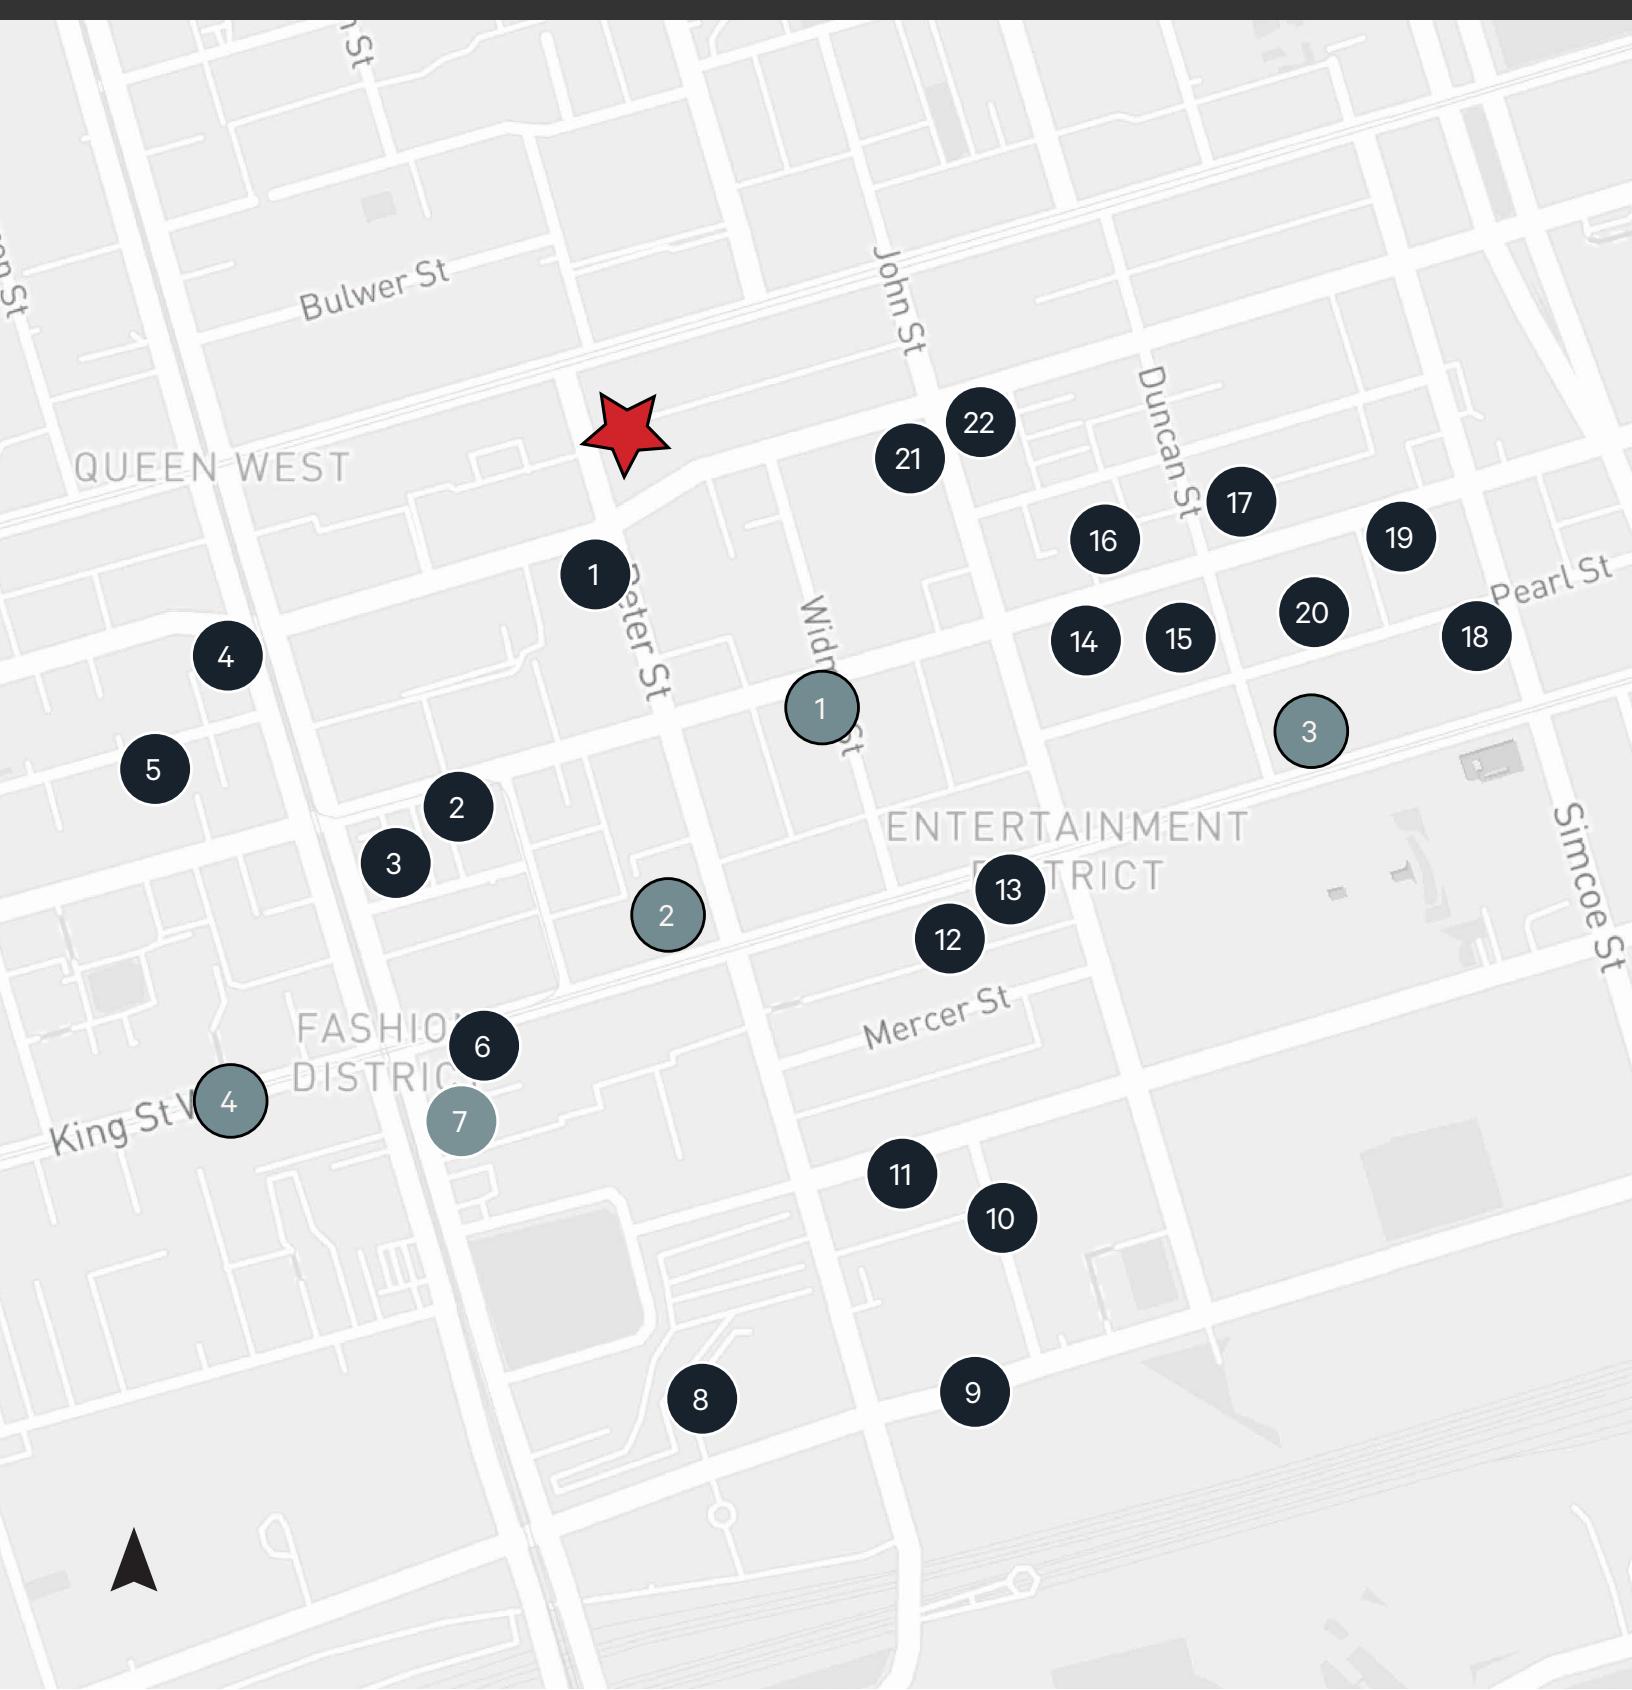

This location also sits within close proximity to many of Toronto's most iconic cultural and entertainment landmarks, including the CN Tower, Ripley's Aquarium, Rogers Centre, Princess of Wales Theatre, Roy Thomson Hall, and TIFF Bell Lightbox, making it a natural draw for both local visitors and international tourists.
