EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

34 Wright Ave presents a substantial owner user industrial opportunity totaling 49,026 SF across 2 buildings, situated on 3.05 acres in Auburn's established industrial district. Built in 1949, the property offers functional infrastructure including 18-foot clear heights, eight drive-in doors, and eight exterior dock positions, supporting a wide range of manufacturing, warehousing, and distribution uses.

Strategically located just minutes from NY-34, NY-5, and the NYS Thruway (I-90), the property offers excellent regional connectivity to Syracuse, Rochester, the Finger Lakes, and Central New York's major labor and logistics hubs. Its strong transportation access, combined with its large contiguous footprint, loading capabilities, and flexible multi-tenant layout, make 34 Wright Ave a compelling acquisition for owner-users or investors seeking scalable industrial space in a well-positioned and accessible Central New York location.

ABOUT AUBURN, NY

Auburn, NY is a strategically positioned industrial market in the Finger Lakes region, offering excellent access to NY-34, NY-5, and the NYS Thruway (I-90), making it an efficient hub for manufacturing, warehousing, and distribution. The city features a mix of legacy industrial buildings and adaptable flex/warehouse assets, with generally tight availability and cost-competitive occupancy compared to larger nearby metros. Supported by a stable regional workforce, proximity to Syracuse, and active economic development initiatives, Auburn continues to attract industrial and commercial users seeking scalable space, strong transportation connectivity, and favorable operating costs.
