CAUTIONARY STATEMENT REGARDING FORWARD LOOKING INFORMATION

The Company may produce and offer "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the safe harbor provisions of the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements can be identified by words such as: "anticipate," "intend," "plan," "goal," "seek," "believe," "project," "estimate," "expect," "strategy," "future," "likely," “may," "should," "will" and similar references to future periods with respect to certain properties, investments, and the market. Forward-looking statements are neither historical facts nor assurances of future performance. Instead, they are based only on our current beliefs, expectations and assumptions regarding the future of our business, future plans and strategies, projections, anticipated events and trends, the economy and other future conditions. Because forward-looking statements relate to the future, they are subject to inherent uncertainties, risks and changes in circumstances that are difficult to predict and many of which are outside of our control. Our actual results and financial condition may differ materially from those indicated in the forward-looking statements. Therefore, you should not rely on any of these forward-looking statements.

Company reserves the sole right to determine whether compensation will be given to a licensee that cannot produce proof of representation in a transaction in substantial written form acceptable to Company. Selling bonuses are subject to change and/or cancellation without notice. Agents should consult listing agents to verify any compensation.
