Walker County's Industrial Game Changers

Strategic investments from global brands fueling local expansion.

- LaFayette, GA (July 24, 2025) – Governor Brian P. Kemp today announced that Pilgrim's, one of the world's leading food companies, will invest $400 million to expand its footprint in Georgia. The company will build a new, multi-phase prepared foods facility in Walker County, supporting more than 630 new jobs at full capacity.
- The project, which includes the construction of a 300,000 square foot building, is expected to get underway this fall with hiring taking place in 2027, aligning with the expected completion of the first phase of construction.
