THE LOCATION

Old Town San Diego is known as the oldest settled area in San Diego. It is nestled along Interstate 5, and surrounded by restaurants, retail, office, nightlife and endless amenities in the area, and just 5 minutes north of Downtown San Diego. Attractive spanish style retail and office buildings line the streets, and the growth and development of Old Town and its immediate surrounding areas has created a lure for smaller start up companies looking for creative office space that is conveniently located for its employees.

Old Town is one of the most iconic and historic neighborhoods in the City of San Diego. The region is the traditional land of the First People of the Kumeyaay Nation (Kumeyaay People), who had lived here for thousands of years. Old Town is the first European settlement known as the birthplace of San Diego and the state of California. In 1968, the State of California Department of Parks and Recreation established Old Town State Historic Park to preserve the rich and diverse heritage that characterized San Diego. Old Town has ten hotels, 30 restaurants, and over 75 unique shopping places.

NEARBY RESTAURANTS

When it comes to experiencing some of the rich history of the city while you're out for dinner, you won't find anything quite like Old Town. Old Town's dining is lively and vibrant, known for its authentic Mexican cuisine with traditional flavors and culture.

What comes as a surprise to many visitors is that many of the best restaurants in San Diego's Old Town are not Mexican food. The neighborhood is more diverse than most people realize and is constantly evolving.

It has amazing sushi, pizza, and of course, Mexican food and tequila and all are located just steps from 2398 San Diego Avenue.
