PROPERTY SUMMARY

SVN Stone Commercial Real Estate is pleased to present 4.16 acres of shovel-ready industrial land located at 750 Richmond Avenue in Nicholasville, Kentucky. The property is zoned I-1 Industrial and comes with an approved development plan for three flex/industrial buildings totaling 44,000 SF: two 12,000 SF buildings and one 20,000 SF building. This is a rare opportunity to acquire permitted, development-ready land in one of Central Kentucky's most active industrial markets.

Nicholasville is one of the fastest-growing cities in Kentucky and sits immediately adjacent to Lexington, providing access to a strong labor pool, major interstates, and an established industrial base. With the entitlement work already complete, a buyer can move from closing to construction quickly — saving significant time and cost compared to raw land.

The site is well suited for a developer, owner-user, or investor looking to build flex or industrial space in a market with strong fundamentals and limited available supply.
