Springdale is located in Washington County at the foothills of the Ozark Mountains. The Oklahoma and Missouri state lines are a half-hour drive away. Springdale is experiencing exponential growth with new additions just south of the project including brand-new state-of-the-art Center for Children's Health & Wellness medical office building, Arkansas Children's Hospital, Highlands Oncology, Trails at Legacy apartments, Arkansas Blue Cross Blue Shield regional office and UAMS Sports & Orthopedic Medicine building at 185,000 square feet. Tyson Foods Inc and George's Inc are both headquartered in Springdale.

Gene George Blvd. is located in one of the fastest-growing submarkets in the Ballpark / Overlay District of Springdale, Arkansas, now deemed the Medical Mile / Care Corridor. The corridor is poised to be the city's metropolitan area and is one of the nation's most affordable and safest areas to live. The city offers great neighborhoods, schools, hospitals and entertainment with Arvest Ballpark, home of the Arkansas Naturals.

Downtown Springdale is undergoing a revitalization and has turned into a welcoming, vibrant and livable community. New projects include the renovation so Luther George Park, future home to a chocolate factory, and a 77-unit mixed-income apartment development called "Big Emma."
