Cabbagetown

Cabbagetown is a historic Atlanta neighborhood located immediately east of downtown, known for its rich industrial heritage and distinctive Victorian-style “shotgun” cottages. Originally built in the late 19th century for mill workers of the Fulton Bag and Cotton Mill, the area retains strong historic character while fostering a vibrant, creative community.

In recent decades, Cabbagetown has become a hub for artists, entrepreneurs, and local businesses, featuring galleries, boutiques, craft breweries, and restaurants, as well as public murals and cultural events like the Chomp & Stomp Chili Festival. Its proximity to the Atlanta Beltline, downtown, and the Historic Fourth Ward provides excellent connectivity and access to amenities, parks, and transit.

With its mix of historic charm, adaptive reuse potential, and strong market demand, Cabbagetown is a highly desirable neighborhood for residential and mixed-use development, offering both cultural appeal and long-term investment opportunity.

Cabbagetown

The Center of Everything

242 Boulevard SE is perfectly positioned in what can truly be described as the “Center of Everything” in Atlanta. Located in the heart of the vibrant Old Fourth Ward, the property offers immediate access to some of the city’s most sought-after destinations. Just minutes away is Krog Street Market, a popular hub for dining, shopping, and socializing, as well as the iconic Atlanta Beltline, which connects residents to miles of trails, parks, art installations, and neighboring communities.

Its central location also places you close to some of Atlanta’s most distinctive neighborhoods, including Cabbagetown, Reynoldstown, and East Atlanta Village—all known for their unique character, local restaurants, nightlife, and community feel. Beyond that, being centrally located within Atlanta means quick access to Downtown, Midtown, and major employment centers, making commuting and entertainment equally convenient. This unmatched proximity to dining, culture, green space, and city energy gives 242 Boulevard a true lifestyle advantage—everything you need is not just nearby, but right around the corner.

The Center of Everything

KROG STREET MARKET

Krog Street Market is a 9-acre mixed-use development in Atlanta located along the Beltline trail at Edgewood Avenue in Inman Park. Since its opening in 2014 the complex has centered on a 12,000 SF west coast-style market with restaurants and includes approximately 300 apartments.

THE ATLANTA BELTLINE

The Atlanta Beltline is a sustainable redevelopment project that provides a network of public parks, multi-use trails and transit along a historic 22-mile railroad corridor circling downtown and connecting many neighborhoods directly to each other.

EAST LAKE GOLF CLUB

East Lake Golf Club is one of Atlanta's most historic and prestigious golf courses, founded in 1904 and known as the home course of legendary golfer Bobby Jones. Located just east of downtown, it hosts the PGA Tour's annual Tour Championship and is recognized for its strong community and philanthropic impact in the surrounding neighborhood.

PONCE CITY MARKET

Formerly a Sears, Roebuck & Co. distribution center and the largest brick building in the Southeastern United States, Ponce City Market is a historic ten story, 2.1 million square foot structure. The property has been restored as a mixed-use development housing best-in-class office, retail and residential spaces.

FREEDOM PARK

Freedom Park is the largest linear passive park in the City of Atlanta at just over 200 acres of pastoral rolling greenspace. With the advent of the Atlanta Beltline, Freedom Park is a critical connection to movement throughout the city by bike or by foot. The trails connect to Downtown Atlanta and other intown neighborhoods.

ATLANTA DAIRIES

Atlanta Dairies is a vibrant mixed-use destination in Atlanta, Georgia, featuring an eclectic shopping mall with boutiques, local vendors, and live music/events. It's located at 777 Memorial Dr SE and has become a popular spot for unique finds and creative community gatherings in the city.

The Center of Everything

INMAN PARK

Inman Park is one of Atlanta's oldest and most sought-after neighborhoods, originally developed in the late 1800s as the city's first planned suburb just east of downtown. Known for its historic Victorian homes, tree-lined streets, and proximity to the BeltLine, it blends historic charm with a vibrant dining and cultural scene. Today, it remains a highly walkable community with parks, festivals, and easy access to intown attractions.

EAST ATLANTA VILLAGE

East Atlanta Village (EAV) is a lively, eclectic neighborhood in southeast Atlanta known for its artistic vibe, local music scene, and diverse food and nightlife options. The area features a mix of historic homes and newer developments, with walkable streets and frequent community events like festivals and markets. EAV is popular with young professionals and creatives seeking a vibrant, close-knit neighborhood with a strong sense of local culture.

GRANT PARK

Grant Park is a historic urban park in Atlanta, Georgia, known for its lush green spaces, walking trails, and recreational facilities. It's home to the Atlanta Zoo and features a mix of Victorian-era charm and modern amenities, making it a popular spot for families and outdoor events. The park also hosts festivals and community gatherings throughout the year.

OLD FOURTH WARD

Old Fourth Ward (O4W) is a historic and rapidly evolving neighborhood in Atlanta, famous as the birthplace of Martin Luther King Jr. It blends historic charm with modern development, featuring renovated lofts, trendy restaurants, and the popular BeltLine and Ponce City Market nearby. The area is highly walkable and vibrant, attracting young professionals and families who enjoy a mix of culture, history, and urban living.

LITTLE FIVE POINTS

Little Five Points is a vibrant, eclectic neighborhood in Atlanta known for its alternative culture, street art, and independent shops. Famous for its live music venues, quirky boutiques, and diverse dining scene, it's a hub for creatives and young adults seeking a lively, offbeat atmosphere. The area's walkable streets and unique character make it one of Atlanta's most distinctive and energetic neighborhoods.

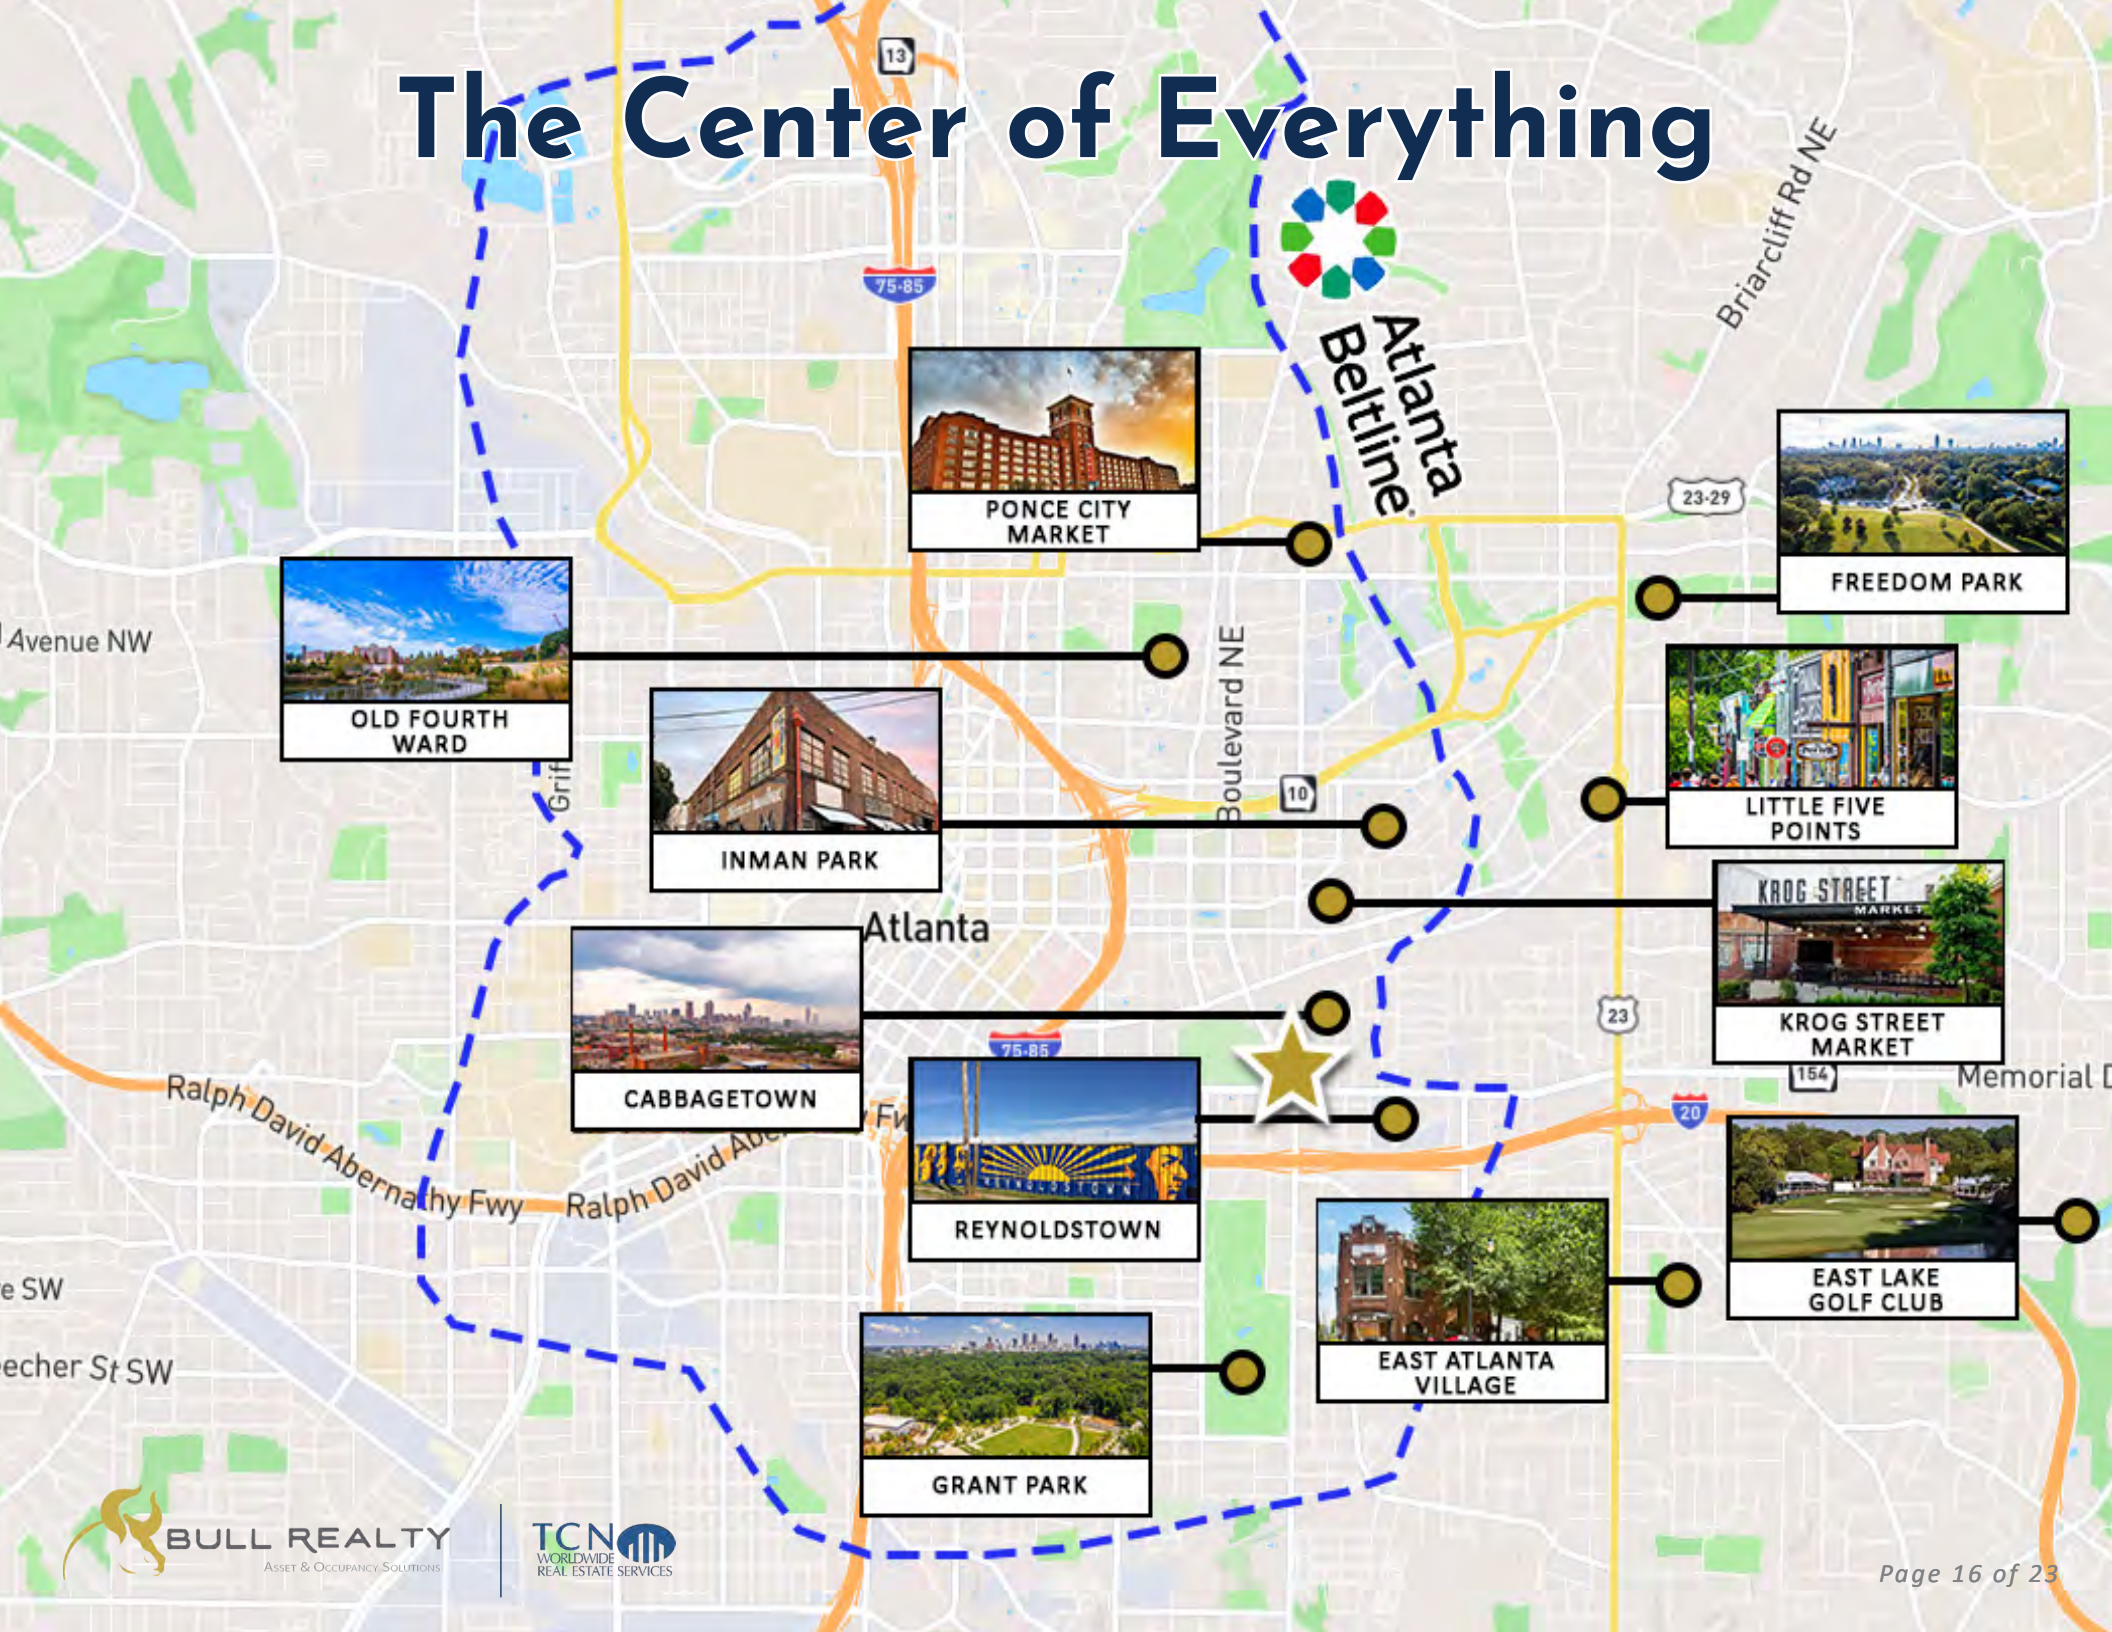

REYNOLDSTOWN

Reynoldstown is a historic intown neighborhood in Atlanta, located just east of downtown and adjacent to the BeltLine. Known for its early 20th-century bungalows and strong sense of community, it has a mix of longtime residents and newcomers drawn to its walkability and proximity to shops, restaurants, and parks. Reynoldstown offers a blend of historic charm and modern conveniences, making it a popular choice for young professionals and families.

The Center of Everything

Atlanta Beltline®

The Atlanta Beltline is one of the largest, most wide-ranging urban redevelopment programs in the United States. This network of public parks, multi-use trails, transit, and affordable housing along a historic 22-mile railroad corridor is enhancing mobility, connecting intown neighborhoods, and improving economic opportunity and sustainability. Meet the organizations moving the Atlanta BeltLine forward. Formed in 2005, Atlanta Beltline Partnership is the nonprofit organization that helps keep the Atlanta Beltline vision on track by enabling the construction of more parks and trails; engaging the public through tours, health and fitness programs, and special events; and empowering Atlanta BeltLine residents to connect with affordable housing, economic development and a healthy lifestyle.
