DESCRIPTION

The Freedom Center is a landmark industrial production facility with over 300,000 sf, located on a prime multi-block site in Downtown Omaha. It's conveniently located between The Old Market and Capitol District with interstate access. Originally commissioned in 2001 as a state-of-the-art newspaper production plant, the facility features a robust infrastructure, including a five-level press hall. A unique tunnel connects the adjacent 40,000 sf material storage facility and features a multi-story racking system. This flagship property is a "catalyst" parcel for the ongoing redevelopment of the downtown core. It's ready for continued industrial use or redevelopment!

OVER $1 BILLION INVESTED IN OMAHA'S URBAN CORE

GENE LEAHY MALL: The beneficiary of a recent $325 million remodel, Omaha's urban park is rich with history and poised for the future of a rapidly developing city.

AIRPORT EXPANSION: Omaha has shown its dedication to growing the city by investing $950 million in the redevelopment of Eppley Airport, which is estimated to be completed in 2028

JOSLYN ART MUSEUM: The Joslyn finished its 42,000 SF, $100M addition to educate, engage, and connect the public with their collection, containing over 12,000 pieces that represent over 5,000 years of history.

NEW APARTMENTS AND HOTELS: With downtown's recent developments, many residents are relocating to this area. Over 1,500 apartment units have been added in the last few years or are under construction. Along with over 450 hotel rooms in development

HEARTLAND OF AMERICA PARK AT THE RIVERFRONT: Nestled in between the Gene Leahy Mall and the Missouri River, the Heartland of America Park at the Riverfront offers acres of greenspace, walking paths, a skating ribbon, and a lookout point over the river.

THE CAPITOL DISTRICT: One of Omaha's newest music venues, The Steelhouse, is surrounded by a mix of bars, restaurants, hospitality, and office space in its new home, the Capitol District.

MUTUAL OF OMAHA TOWER: Mutual of Omaha is currently developing one of the tallest buildings in the region. The $600M 44-story glass tower stands at a staggering 677 feet.

CHI HEALTH CENTER: Worldwide headliners make their stop in Omaha at the CHI Health Center, a staple in the region's entertainment scene. The arena hosts conventions, concerts, rodeos, Omaha Supernovas Professional Volleyball, and the Creighton Men's Basketball team.

CHI Health is currently constructing a $200M addition that will add 90,000 SF to the city's convention center.

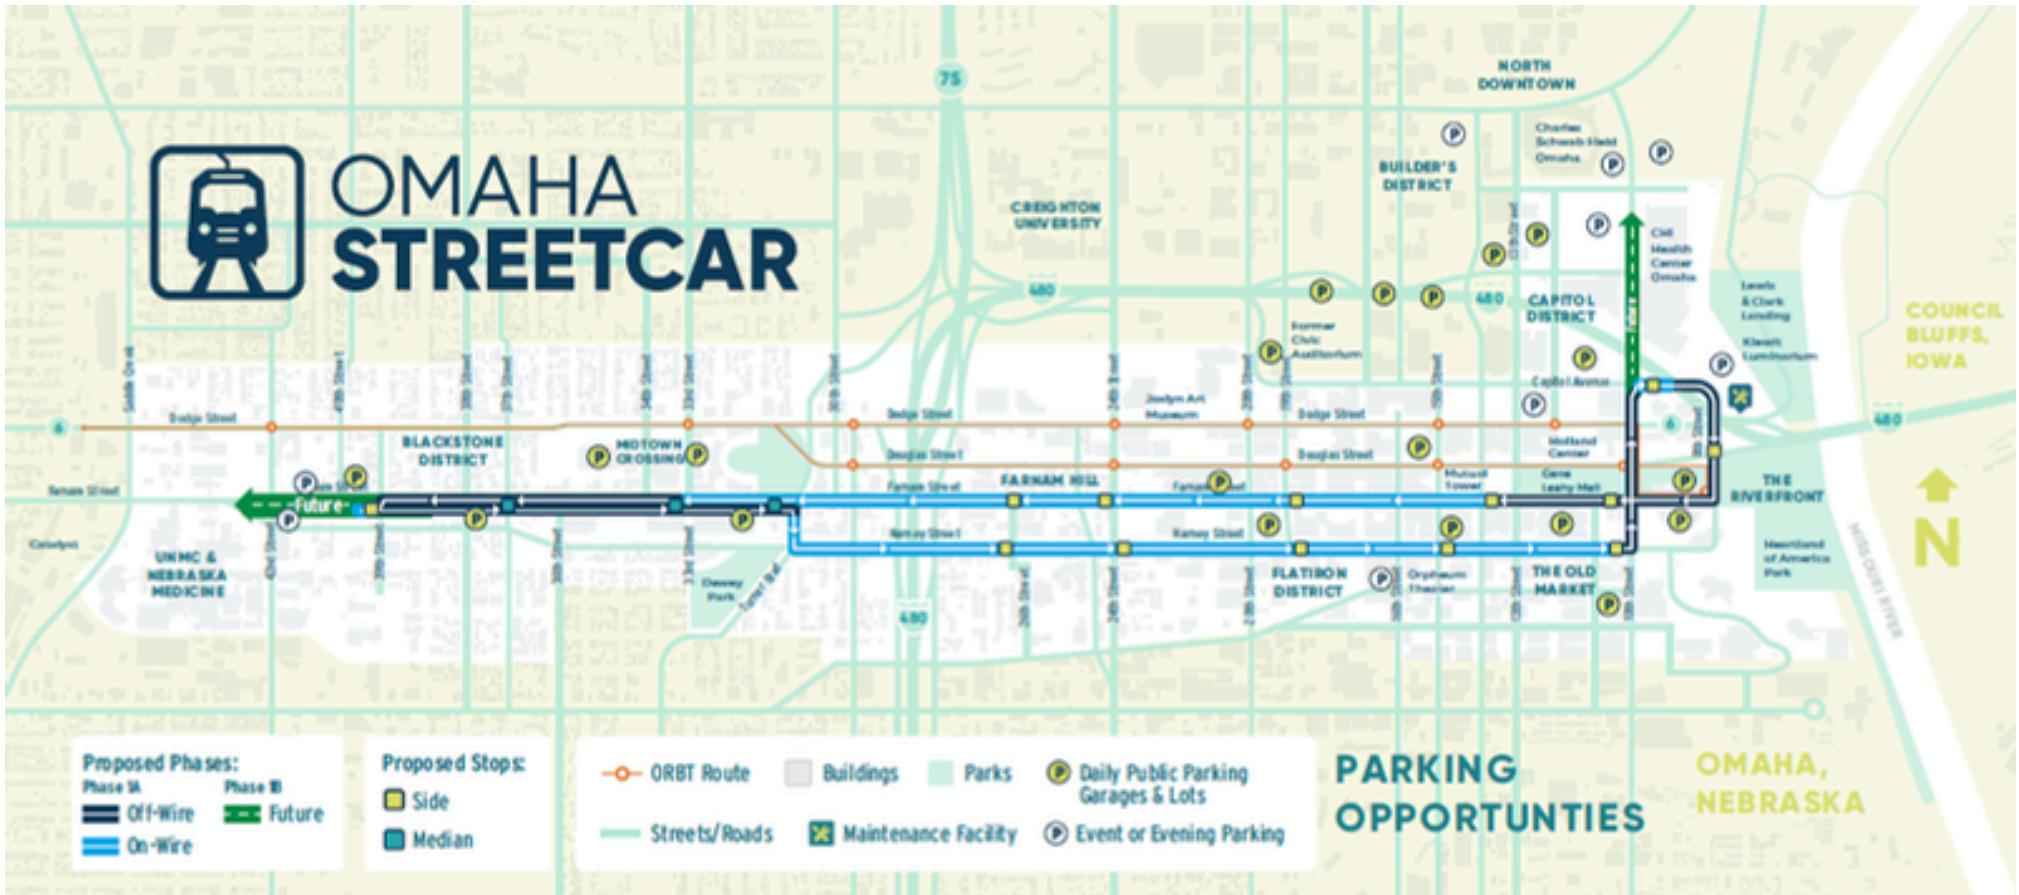

CHARLES SCHWAB FIELD: Home to one of Omaha's longest-running and most beloved sports traditions, the Men's College World Series, Charles Schwab Field brings baseball fans from around the world to the heart of downtown Omaha.

MILLWORK COMMONS: Omaha's North Downtown Neighborhood revitalization project is well underway, with established residential and retail presence welcoming the development of new hospitality, service, and entertainment space coming soon.

OMAHA STREETCAR

The Omaha Streetcar is currently under construction, with operation starting in 2028. Streetcar will be a three-mile route that will offer guests traveling downtown the opportunity to park their cars and catch a free ride at specific locations. The route will have 16 stops, which include The CHI Health Center arena, The River Front, The Old Market, Midtown, and the Blackstone district, which offers easy access throughout the downtown area, so guests can truly experience the downtown atmosphere without worrying about parking or being confined to a single area.
