PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Discover the potential of this distinctive property situated on a spacious corner lot in a well-established neighborhood just minutes from the heart of downtown Russellville. Once a vibrant place of worship, this former church building offers an expansive main structure with an open interior space. Included on the property is a charming parsonage offering additional space that could serve as a rental unit, private residence, or office with some thoughtful rehabilitation. With solid bones and potential, this multi-structure property invites your vision for redevelopment.
