

ABOUT US

Logan County, Kentucky is where opportunity meets community. Ideally located between Bowling Green and Clarksville, and just a short drive from Nashville, Logan County offers a strategic location, a supportive business environment, and a skilled workforce supported by a state-of-the-art career and technical center. The local career and technical center plays a vital role in workforce readiness by partnering closely with area industries to align training programs with current and future employment needs. With a strong foundation in agriculture and long-standing industrial employers in metals, plastics, and gourmet pet food, the area combines economic strength with small-town charm. Residents and visitors alike enjoy a rich history and abundant outdoor recreation, including the natural beauty of Lake Malone.
