Property Overview

Property Overview

After a beautiful remodel, 600 South Ave West became home to Missoula's Drum Coffee for nearly a decade. The neighborhood location enjoys fantastic visibility and welcomes customers from across the city, but is close enough to homes, schools and parks for lots of visitors to arrive on foot or by bike. In the warmer months, the outdoor patio is a vibrant meeting spot with views of Mt. Sentinel and an awesome cafe window that marries the outdoor and indoor spaces. Raising the roof on the front of the building and then adding lots and lots of glass bathes the indoor space in southern light and gives the building a mid-century feel thanks to the shed roof. Inside, the front-of-house is finished in penny tile flooring with colorful accents, matte brass, and a kitchen integrated into the space that has enough room for multiple staff. The building is just over 1440 square feet and includes lots of storage in the back, plus offices. The lot is over 7000 sqft with room behind the building for more outdoor space, or additional uses. Please note that the furniture, fixtures and equipment are not included in the sale price, but may be separately negotiated.

Market Overview

Community Overview

Missoula is western Montana's commercial and cultural hub, with a metro population of nearly 130,000. Centered along historic Higgins Avenue, downtown Missoula is a walkable, high-traffic district home to retail, dining, offices, and cultural landmarks. The city's central location at the convergence of five valleys makes it a natural gathering place for commerce, recreation, and community life.

The local economy is anchored by enduring institutions like the University of Montana and Providence St. Patrick Hospital, along with strong public-sector and transportation employers. Missoula's economic identity is increasingly shaped by its burgeoning tech ecosystem. The city has produced high-growth innovators like Submittable, which recently secured a spot on Inc. Magazine's list of America's fastest-growing private companies, as well as Pathlabs, both of which boast impressive multi-year growth.

Known for its quality of life, Missoula blends vibrant arts and culture with abundant outdoor recreation, from the Clark Fork River and Caras Park to nearby trails and ski areas. The Missoula Public Library, now the downtown flagship, was named Public Library of the Year in 2022 by the International Federation of Library Associations. This balance of opportunity, community, and lifestyle makes Missoula one of the most desirable markets in the Northern Rockies for investment and development.
