Disrupting the Status Quo

7:30A | ALT COMMUTE

Rolling in early by bike (and skipping a half-hour of ATL traffic) starts the day off right. Score priority parking at the bike valet—first in gets the best spot!

8A | HIT THE FITNESS STUDIO EARLY

Off to the studio for some light weights and cardio to get the morning going. The Circa studio is a great outlet for a quick sweat and with brand new equipment, lockers, and showers, it's simple to make time for wellness.

10A | EMBRACE THIRD PLACE

Second coffee time. Head down to the F&B to enjoy the daily grind and some much-needed third-place.

12P | NO SAD DESK LUNCH HERE

Eat al fresco and people-watch from the swings on the Circa porch. Catch-up on emails in the shade. Best alt-office on Peachtree.

Workday-to-Night Amenities

2P | AFTERNOON BRAINSTORM

Impromptu charrette-and-conquer session with the marketing team in the open lobby lounge (a short distraction courtesy of the interactive pixel wall).

4P | COMMUNITY COLLAB

Wrap the work day with an 'all team' meeting in the Circa conference room. Complete with ClickShare technology, impromptu sharing is easy and effective in conquering the daily agenda.

5P | HAPPY HOUR > RUSH HOUR

A round of specialty cocktails—and all the tapas—with the crew in the usual booth on the window line. A perfect way to switch gears.

7:30P | OUT ON THE (MID)TOWN

Walk next door to the Fox for a night of laughs (comedy special!) with great company. Then walk to the North Avenue MARTA Station entrance just across the street.

Feeling inspired for another day of unexpected at Circa 730.

From workday-to-night, Circa 730 revolves around you

Defining the Techtangle of Midtown's hustling innovation hub, Circa 730 is a dynamic, workday-to-night office environment that revolves around the life and workstyles of ATL's tech-minded and entrepreneur-spirited.

Inviting conversation, defying convention

Sculptural suspension swings and an interactive light-art installation, the city's first interactive pixel wall, invite conversation and contemplation—while defying convention.

Capturing tireless curiosity in bold strokes

Delivered in 2019, the bar-raising repositioning is purposefully, playfully designed to redefine and reinvigorate its community.

As it embodies the unequaled energy, creativity, and drive of the Southeast's startup epicenter, Circa 730 toggles effortlessly between past and present.

Workspace as unique as your mission

From exposed ceilings to exposed concrete, abundant glass to abundant views, the spec studios at Circa 730 are designed to deliver a better workday.

Between rush hour and happy hour

For flexible lunch hours, dinner hours and cocktail hours — head to El Viñedo, Circa's South American inspired tapas and wine bar.

In the heart of Midtown's Techtangle

No matter your method of transport —by foot, bike, MARTA, ride share, or car— Circa 730 is within a short distance.
