EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Middleburgh Meadows presents a rare, fully approved 48-unit residential condominium development opportunity located in the heart of Schoharie County. Situated on approximately 7.6 acres, this shovel-ready Phase Two offering benefits from successful prior development and strong market validation.

Phase One of the project—15 units—has been fully constructed and sold, with the most recent sale achieving $374,900 ($212.77/SF), demonstrating robust buyer demand for quality, low-maintenance housing in this desirable location. Phase Two includes 48 remaining approved units, with plans available for a four-unit townhome design, providing flexibility and efficiency for future construction.

With municipal water and sewer, breathtaking mountain views, and a peaceful residential setting, Middleburgh Meadows delivers the ideal blend of convenience and lifestyle appeal. The site is located immediately adjacent to the Middleburgh Meadows retail plaza, enhancing walkability and daily convenience for future residents.

This is an exceptional opportunity for builders, developers, or investors to step into a fully approved, market-proven residential project in a growing Upstate New York community.
