MORE ABOUT LA PLAZA VILLAGE

Of LA Plaza Village's 16 retail spaces, 7 are available to innovative restaurants and dynamic retail concepts willing to mix seamlessly into the existing historic fabric of LA Plaza. Available spaces range from 540 square feet to 3,434 square feet. The Cesar Chavez Foundation has relocated their headquarters to LA Plaza Village and the LA Plaza de Cultura y Artes Museum has opened a 2,500 SF world class demonstration kitchen at the mouth of the Paseo. LA Plaza attracts DTLA workers, area residents, families and tourists alike with its vibrant mix of the modern and traditional. LA Plaza Village is a rare opportunity for brands to create a mix of neighborhood and destination retail that serves the existing neighborhood population, as well as working families, employees in the Civic Center, and the robust visitor base.
