EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The Opportunity

Matthews™ Healthcare Division is pleased to present the opportunity to acquire a single-tenant medical office asset leased to the ENT Institute of Southern Illinois, located in Swansea, Illinois. Operating under a 3-year absolute NNN sale-leaseback, the offering provides immediate, predictable cash flow with zero landlord responsibilities, making it an attractive short-term, high-yield medical investment.

The ENT Institute of Southern Illinois is a well-established specialty practice providing essential ENT services to the greater St. Louis Metro East region. As an outpatient medical user, the tenant benefits from non-discretionary healthcare demand, strong referral patterns, and repeat patient visits, supporting durable occupancy. The absolute NNN lease structure creates a truly hands-off ownership profile for investors, making this a great opportunity for passive cash flow.

The property is positioned within an established suburban medical and professional corridor just minutes from Interstate 64, allowing convenient access from across St. Clair County and the broader St. Louis Metro East. The site is located less than 10 minutes from Memorial Hospital Belleville, supporting physician referrals and operational synergy with a major regional healthcare provider. The surrounding trade area is supported by strong demographics, including 113,321 residents within a 5-mile radius and a 1-mile average household income exceeding $125,000, reinforcing the long-term viability of outpatient specialty medical services.

This offering represents a compelling opportunity for investors seeking high current yield, minimal management, and medical tenancy in a fundamentally strong suburban healthcare market.

INVESTMENT HIGHLIGHTS

- Absolute NNN Sale-Leaseback: The ENT Institute of Southern Illinois is operating under a 3-year absolute NNN lease, providing investors with truly passive ownership.
- Attractive, High-Yield Investment: Offered at a 9.75% cap rate, the investment delivers strong current income relative to other medical office assets, appealing to investors seeking yield without operational complexity.
- Essential, Specialty Medical Tenancy: ENT services are a core component of outpatient healthcare, driven by consistent patient demand, referral-based business, and repeat visits. Specialty medical practices such as ENT benefit from non-discretionary care needs and stable utilization across economic cycles.
- Defensive Healthcare Asset Class: Medical office real estate remains one of the most resilient property types due to its reliance on essential services rather than consumer spending. Outpatient specialty practices continue to see sustained demand as care shifts away from hospital settings.
- Established Practice Serving the Metro East Region: The tenant serves patients throughout the St. Louis Metro East and Southern Illinois markets, supporting long-term viability through a broad referral base and regional healthcare demand.
- Strong Suburban Medical Location with Supportive Demographics: The property is located in Swansea, IL, with convenient access to I-64 and surrounding St. Clair County communities. The immediate trade area is supported by 113K+ residents within a 5-mile radius, while the 1-mile average household income exceeds $125K, providing a strong demographic foundation for outpatient specialty medical services.
- Low-Management, Short-Term Medical Investment: The combination of a short-term lease, absolute NNN structure, and medical tenancy makes this offering well-suited for investors seeking near-term income with minimal management while maintaining future flexibility at lease rollover.

Net Lease Disclaimer – There are many different types of leases, including gross, net, single net ("N"), double net ("NN"), and triple net ("NNN") leases. The distinctions between different types of leases or within the same type of leases, such as "Bondable NNN," "Absolute NNN," "True NNN," or other NNN leases, are not always clear. Labels given to different leases may mean different things to different people and are not defined legal terms. Buyers cannot rely on the labels or marketing descriptions given to any lease when making their purchasing decisions. Buyers must closely review all lease terms and are advised to seek legal counsel to determine the landlord and tenant's respective rights and duties under the lease to ensure the lease, regardless of how labeled or described, meets the buyers' particular needs.
