PROPERTY DETAIL

The prior police station is a 2 Story building spanning a full block from Duke Street to Christian Street. The building offers 2 glass door entrances on Chestnut Street, welcoming visitors into common lobbies.

The first floor is occupied by two, well qualified commercial Tenants. The 2nd floor and some areas of the first floor are vacant and ready for a new owner to develop into a new use, occupy, or lease to new Tenant(s). The 2nd floor can be accessed from the main entrances on Chestnut Street, but also has a direct glass door entrance on Duke Street. This door has its own address of 200 North Duke Street, so an occupant can enjoy having its own identity and address.

202 North Duke Street, known locally as “the firehouse”, was most recently occupied by a successful fashion boutique for many years. The 3,500± sq. ft. space offers clear span, abundant windows, and does not have an interior connection to any other parts of the property.

The secure parking garage is in the lower level of 39 East Chestnut Street. The automatic garage door is located on Christian Street and there are 44 spaces. See lease details for parking information for each Tenant space.

Additional parking is easily accessible with 2 public parking garages adjacent to the property and easy street parking.

Signage opportunities on building exterior with high visibility.

ADA Access, 100% sprinklered + monitored fire alarm system, elevator to all levels, heavy data/IT, all units have separated HVAC systems.

Prime location just 2.5 blocks from Penn Square, Central Market & close proximity to courthouse, entertainment, gallery row, eating and drinking establishments & more.
