Professional Background

Bob Fredlund is a real estate agent at Coldwell Banker Select, a general contractor, as well as the owner of Nevada Style Construction. Selling and negotiating all types of real estate and building custom homes, new developments, and commercial buildings with his family is the most rewarding part of his life. Bob likes to get things done. He has 40 years in the industry and is passionate about providing quality customer service to all his clients and believes that anyone with a real estate or construction need, be it big or small, should receive knowledgeable assistance. This belief system can be seen in Bob's personal real estate brand, Nevada Style Real Estate and Construction Service, which focuses on providing Western Hospitality, Honesty, and Professional advice to his clients.

Bob's ability to assess the quality and benefits of the homes and buildings his clients are purchasing and building, as well as his aptitude to evaluate market conditions and provide a balanced perspective, comes from his many years as a Realtor and builder. He learned from his parents during their long careers in real estate, development, and construction, and has gained further insight from over 30 years of working on the construction side of real estate. Licensed as a General Contractor in Nevada since 1998, he has overseen the construction of more than 2,000 combined homes in Northern Nevada alone. He is experienced in developments and has also built custom homes in Northern Nevada, Arizona, Idaho, and Hawaii. Currently, he is building single-family homes in Carson City, Washoe Valley, and The Santa Maria Ranch development along the Carson River in Dayton that offer open floor plans on ½ to 1 acre parcels with 3-car and RV garages.
