A Site Built For Freight

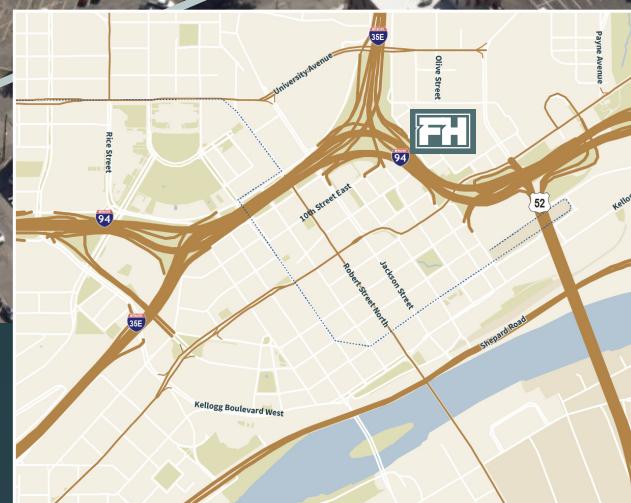

Throughout history the Lafayette Park region of Saint Paul has remained an essential location for freight distribution. Ideally situated, this area has been designed to efficiently bring large volumes of freight into the Twin Cities for the Great Northern Pacific, the Chicago Milwaukee, the Chicago Northwestern, and the Soo Line.

Today, Freight House Distribution Center remains a vital asset for freight distribution, providing a strategic location for transport and great freeway access to I-94, I-35E, and Highway 52.
