Original home of the Allentown Bobbin Works, built in 1903 to support the region's thriving silk industry, this historic property has been thoughtfully updated while maintaining its unique industrial and architectural charm.

Now a vibrant multi-tenant building, it includes long-term occupants such as a childcare provider and the Allentown Area Food Bank. Recent improvements include the installation of an elevator, ADA-compliant restrooms, extensive window replacements, and modern system upgrades.

Whether you're an owner/user or an investor, this is a rare opportunity to own a landmark property that combines historic character with meaningful community use.

- Multi-tenant Office Building
- Extensively Upgraded and Modernized
