Time to return to convenient, affordable, single-story office space in the suburbs.

Chantilly Square is close to your home and remote workforce, major highways, Dulles Airport and numerous amenities.

Shorter terms and smaller spaces provide economy and flexibility, while still accommodating a professional image and collaborative meeting spaces.

Plenty of parking - no need to use mass transit.

Green space for breaks, lunch or walks.

Building entrance is easily accessible. No elevators to use or touch. Many suites have individual offices or a mix of partitioned offices and open spaces. Easier for your employees to social distance. Some suites have private exterior entrances.
