THE NEIGHBORHOOD

Hanley is easily accessible by all forms of transportation. The 4, 5, 6, N, Q, R and F subway lines are steps away providing convenience from all points on the Upper East Side. The new Q train brings added foot traffic with its new station at East 63rd Street and Third Avenue.

There is a strong day-time population in part from office tenants like Fox Studios and Sotheby's, and many area hospitals including Memorial Sloan Kettering, New York-Presbyterian/Weil Cornell Medical Center and Lenox Hill Hospital. Luxury hotels in the neighborhood, such as The Pierre, The Carlyle, The Mark, The Surrey and Gardens NYC, cater to visiting tourists and diplomats.
