Location Description

Defiance is located on US-24 as a regional draw between Toledo and Fort Wayne, IN. It is a county seat and economic hub for the six county area. Defiance is home to two major health systems, and also a four year liberal arts college. It has a strong manufacturing and entrepreneurial base, with new companies entering the market.

First Quality Paper just announced a new $945 million project in Defiance on the 1,100 acre mega-site with over 400 new jobs. Other large economic wins include the $250 million investment of MetalX on a 190 acre campus; Tessenderlo Kerley 's multi-million dollar liquid fertilizer plant; Decked's new 150,000 SF expansion and the location of Titan Mechanical into Defiance.

The subject is located in downtown Defiance at the busiest intersection in the city. This "Main and Main location" at Second Street and Clinton Street is the intersections of four State Routes. Downtown Clinton Street is anchored by the Maumee River on the north, and the historic 1918 building and Triangle Park on the south. The downtown is active with many different events and festivals, such as Lilac Festival, Rib Fest, Chocolate Walk, Thunder on the River boat races, Halloween Parade and others.

This location is in the heart of the Defiance Outdoor Refreshment Area(DORA), where alcoholic beverages can be enjoyed in public within the specific boundaries.
