Area

Berkeley County WV is the second largest county in West Virginia with a population of 104,169 which is a 37.2% increase from a population of 75,905 in 2000. Berkeley County is strategically located near major highway, rail and air transportation routes. Located on I-81 (a major north-south transportation corridor) and close to I-70, connecting to the Washington/Baltimore metropolitan region. Our location and quick access to a full range of major transportation networks makes Berkeley County the right place to do business. In fact, Berkeley County's location places it within 500 miles of 50% of the U.S. population and two-thirds of all industrial activity in the U.S.
