Executive Summary

The 5,650 SF development site at 7711 Carlyle Ave presents a compelling infill opportunity in the North Beach submarket of Miami Beach, an emerging residential corridor experiencing increased investor interest and ongoing public and private investment. The area benefits from its proximity to Collins Avenue and the beachfront, while remaining well-connected to Mid-Beach, Surfside, Bal Harbour, and the broader urban core of Miami, attracting both local and out-of-state capital seeking exposure to Miami Beach's evolving northern corridor.

The property benefits from strong accessibility to major thoroughfares including Collins Avenue and 71st Street, providing convenient connectivity throughout Miami Beach and to mainland Miami via key east-west corridors. Its location within a walkable, supply-constrained coastal neighborhood supports continued demand from developers targeting boutique residential projects in a high-barrier-to-entry market.

Zoned RM-1, the site permits low-intensity multifamily residential development, making it well-suited for boutique apartment or residential redevelopment consistent with the surrounding neighborhood fabric.

Overall, the property represents a strategically located residential development opportunity in North Beach, appealing to developers and investors seeking to capitalize on the continued growth and transformation of Miami Beach's northern submarket.

Property Location:

7711 Carlyle Ave is located in the North Beach neighborhood of Miami Beach, a coastal submarket experiencing increasing redevelopment activity as investment continues to expand north from Mid-Beach and Surfside. The surrounding area has seen a steady influx of residential repositioning and public improvements, reflecting the broader evolution of Miami Beach's northern corridor.

The property benefits from close proximity to key destinations including Collins Avenue, the North Beach Town Center, Mid-Beach, and Bal Harbour, while remaining well-connected to mainland Miami via major east-west corridors. This positioning places the site within a submarket that continues to attract developers and investors seeking infill residential opportunities in a supply-constrained coastal environment.

Connectivity to primary thoroughfares such as Collins Avenue and 71st Street provides efficient access throughout Miami Beach and to the greater Miami metropolitan area. This accessibility supports sustained demand for residential development in a walkable, amenity-rich neighborhood with proximity to the beachfront.

Zoned RM-1 and comprising a  $\pm$ 5,650 SF development site, the property represents a well-located opportunity within Miami Beach's North Beach submarket, appealing to developers seeking boutique residential projects in an area undergoing continued growth and reinvestment.
