

A high-angle photograph of a modern brick building with large glass windows, surrounded by lush green trees. In the background, the San Francisco skyline is visible, including the Transamerica Pyramid. The image is overlaid with five large, semi-transparent geometric shapes: a dark blue triangle on the left, an orange triangle pointing down in the center-left, a green triangle pointing up in the center-right, a light green triangle pointing down on the right, and a blue triangle on the far right. The text 'WATERFRONT PLAZA' is centered in large white capital letters, and 'SAN FRANCISCO' is centered below it in smaller white capital letters.
