Where Innovation and Opportunity Converge

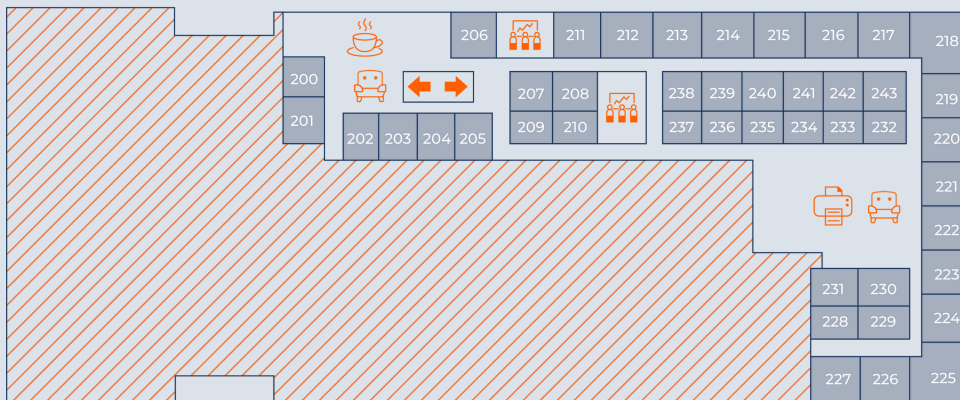

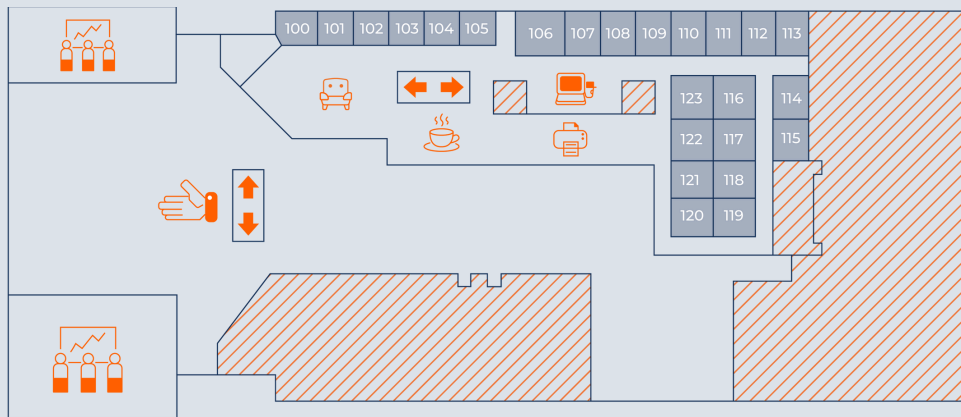

Carr Workplaces Convergence is your gateway to groundbreaking ideas at the intersection of science, education, and business. Located in the state-of-the-art Convergence Center for Innovation and Collaboration on Purdue University's West Campus, this 20,000-square-foot workspace offers private offices, drop-in areas, and meeting rooms designed to fuel productivity. Nestled within Purdue's Discovery Park District—a $1 billion development featuring retail, dining, housing, green spaces, and trails—this location blends convenience with inspiration. For the ultimate change of scenery, the district even boasts its own public airport with a 7,000-foot runway. At Convergence, innovation takes flight.

CLIENT REVIEW

Carr Workplaces Convergence is truly an awesome coworking space. It's a beautiful facility and is home to great people that will do whatever they can to help you be successful. With monthly or daily office rentals, they make it easy to have an office next to campus without a long-term contract. If you want to be close to Purdue University with a corporate presence, this is the place to be.
