Professional Background

Shaylee grew up in Billings, Montana, where she developed a strong connection to the community and the outdoor lifestyle the state offers. Outside of work, she enjoys kayaking, rafting, snowboarding, riding dirt bikes, and camping with her five beautiful and adventurous children.

Since beginning her real estate career in 2017, Shaylee has completed over 150 commercial real estate transactions, specializing in investment-grade and income-producing properties. She gained early experience within a nationally recognized brokerage and earned the Certified Commercial Investment Member (CCIM) designation, one of the industry's most respected credentials. This designation reflects Shaylee's advanced training in investment analysis, financial modeling, and market strategy, enabling her to help clients minimize risk and maximize long-term returns.

Today, Shaylee is the founder and broker of 5Pillars Realty, a boutique commercial real estate brokerage that offers clients direct access to the owner and decision-maker throughout every stage of the transaction. This approach allows for more personalized service, strategic guidance, and responsive communication. She typically manages 16-20 active listings for sale or lease, representing investors, property owners, and businesses across the region.

Outside of real estate, Shaylee is passionate about giving back and actively supports volunteer initiatives serving single mothers, veterans, nursing homes, disaster relief efforts, and communities in developing countries.

 I work hard so I can be generous, as others have been generous to me.

- Shaylee Green

Education

She is a nationally licensed Realtor, Broker, and a CCIM designee, a designation often regarded as the equivalent of a master's-level education in commercial investment analysis. She studied Theology at Yellowstone Christian College, earning an A.A. in Christian Studies with a minor in Humanities, and later continued her studies in Elementary Education at MSU in Billings.

Her educational background, combined with extensive industry experience and professional credentials, supports a thoughtful, relationship-driven approach to helping clients navigate complex commercial real estate decisions.
