Placerville

Placerville is a charming California gold rush town named after the placer gold deposits found in its riverbeds and hills in the late 1840s. Its treasured heritage is reflected in the historical nineteenth-century architecture of its downtown, though you'll find heritage throughout the city limits, which run from Smith Flat to County Fairgrounds.

Known for its apple farms and family-friendly activities in the fall, the Apple Hill Growers Association (Apple Hill™) provides farm-fresh fruit and vegetables, baked and canned goods, and much more. Comprised of 50+ farms, ranches, wineries, and tree farms, the Growers Association is an annual tradition for families from around Northern California.
