Clark County Nevada

Synopsis

As of the 2020 census, the population was 2,265,461, with an estimated population of 2,506,458 in 2025. Most of the county population resides in the Las Vegas Census County Divisions across ± 435 square miles. It is by far the most populous county in Nevada, and the 11th most populous county in the United States. It covers 7% of the state's land area but holds 73% of the state's population, making Nevada one of the most centralized states in the United States.

With jurisdiction over the world-famous Las Vegas Strip and covering an area the size of New Jersey, Clark County is the nation's 14th-largest county. The County is a mix of urban and rural locales that offers the convenience of city living with access to some of the nation's best outdoor recreational areas just a short drive away.

Clark County employs more than 10,000 people over 38 departments. The County has an annual budget of $11.4 billion, which surpasses that of the state government.

Synopsis

The Southwest Las Vegas submarket is one of the valley's most dynamic and high-performing commercial hubs, characterized by rapid, high-quality development and excellent infrastructure. Anchoring prestigious residential areas like Rhodes Ranch and Mountain's Edge, the submarket is strategically positioned with seamless ease of access via the I-215 Beltway, offering fast connectivity to the Strip and Harry Reid International Airport. This commercial corridor is defined by massive corporate and mixed-use assets, including Switch's world-class data center campus, the headquarters and Performance Institute for the UFC, the vibrant UnCommons mixed-use campus, and the new Durango Resort & Casino. This convergence of high-value businesses and desirable living drives consistent, robust retail and office absorption, solidifying the Southwest's status as a premier location for investment and expansion.
