Santa Clarita is a primarily suburban city situated 30 miles northwest of LA's city center. It is just beyond the northern edge of the San Fernando Valley, which is home to roughly 2 million people. Santa Clarita boasts 213,000 residents across roughly 70 square miles, making it the third-largest city in Los Angeles County and the 21st-largest in the state of California. The city's population has roughly doubled from 110,000 in the 1990s to nearly 220,00 today. Offering a calmer alternative to LA's urban lifestyle while still offering easy access to metro Los Angeles within an hour's drive, Santa Clarita is characterized by its beautiful scenery and bustling suburban lifestyle.

In contrast to Los Angeles, Santa Clarita has prioritized open space and a family-friendly atmosphere. Numerous parks, schools, and outdoor recreational areas dot the landscape. Incomes in the area are very strong with an average household income of over $153,000 within 1 mile of the Subject Property. Major local Santa Clarita employers include Henry Mayo Newhall Memorial Hospital, California Institute of the Arts (CalArts), Boston Scientific, Woodward, HRT, and Six Flags Magic Mountain, which situates just outside city limits on the west side of Interstate 5.

Santa Clarita is serviced by Interstate 5 on the western side of the city. The east side of the city is serviced by State Route 14 offering access to Palmdale. State Route 126 terminates at Interstate 5, where it goes west to Ventura, passing through Fillmore and Santa Paula.
