1000 route de l'Église

Located in a dynamic area close to essential services, transportation networks and cultural attractions, 1000 de l'Église represents an opportunity for tenants looking for quality space in a sought-after location. The building features bright spaces with good fenestration and offers all open, collaborative spaces following a modern renovation with no additional work required. Situated close to the Quebec market with numerous restaurants nearby, the property benefits from easily accessible public transport and convenient parking options. Common areas have been recently renovated. Freight elevator and storage are accessible to tenants.
