LOCATION OVERVIEW

NEIGHBORHOOD MAP

The River District

The River District is quickly redeveloping with major infrastructure, commercial and residential development, and is considered by planners as the extension of Downtown with a large and increasing presence of State employment.

The Railyards

The 4.3 million SF redevelopment on 240 acres is the largest brownfield development in the U.S. The Intermodal Transportation Facility will provide links and connectivity to residents and businesses.

Downtown Sacramento

Home to State California employees, State Capitol, and the entertainment epicenter, Downtown Commons (DOCO), Downtown Sacramento is thriving more than ever. With 87,456 daytime employees, Downtown is the premier destination for Bay Area transplants.

Midtown Sacramento

Midtown Sacramento is the center of Sacramento's art, music, and cultural scene. Boutiques, bars, clubs, upscale, and casual dining abound. Midtown hosts an art walk on the second Saturday of each month which attracts thousands of metropolitan residents.

West Sacramento

Includes the burgeoning Bridge District, an urban mixed-use waterfront development with 12.5 million SF of planned space. CalSTRS occupies 400,000 SF and the Department of General Services leases 319,000 SF along the river.
