Prospective purchasers are encouraged to perform their own due diligence, in advance of the auction, regarding the permitted uses of the property.

GENERAL INFORMATION:

Owner's sale of a three story townhome with attached carriage house, arranged for a total of three units, on one of Federal Hill's most prominent streets. The two units in the main house were fully updated approximately 10 years ago, and feature a mix of wood and ceramic tile flooring, granite countertops, stainless appliances, in-unit laundry, forced air heat and CAC. The two story carriage house unit has a separate entrance, could use some updating, and could be repurposed as a home office, studio, garage or demolished for surface parking. The well-located property is ideal for either owner occupants looking to live in one unit and rent one or both of the others, or an investor looking to maximize cash flow in one of Baltimore's best demanded neighborhoods. The auction is being conducted with both online and in-person bidding available.

LOCATION:

The property is located in the Riverside neighborhood in an area broadly referred to as Federal Hill. Riverside is bounded by the Federal Hill neighborhood, South Baltimore neighborhood, Locust Point, Key Highway and the Baltimore Peninsula. The area is among Baltimore's best known, and features exceptional proximity to entertainment, restaurants, major employers and major commuter routes. Riverside Park is located one block south, Cross Street Market is five blocks northwest, and Federal Hill Park is six blocks north. The Baltimore Stadium Complex and Warner Street Entertainment District are a short distance northwest. Baltimore's Inner Harbor, slated for expansive redevelopment, is less than one mile north.

LOCATION (continued):

Major employers in the area include the Under Armour Global Headquarters (1.5 miles south), University of Maryland, Baltimore (2 miles northwest) and those in Downtown, Harbor East and Harbor Point. Public Transportation in the area includes light rail, MARC train service, Metro Bus Service, Baltimore Circulator, University Shuttles and the Baltimore Water Taxi.

William Street is among the most prominent streets in the Federal Hill area. Along with Battery Avenue and Riverside Avenue, William Street fosters large versions of the Federalist Style Townhomes for which the area is known. Many of the homes along William Street, including this one, run all the way back to Durst Street, providing rear access to gardens, accessory units, garages and parking pads. Trees and planters line much of the street, providing a shadier and more lush community. A number of neighborhood restaurants, well-established corner bars and service based businesses are located a short distance south along Fort Avenue, in addition to nearby Light Street and Charles Street.

PURCHASING REAL ESTATE AT AUCTION

The following information is provided by A. J. Billig & Co., Auctioneers to assist you in understanding your purchase of a property at public auction. The material in this form is general in nature and does not limit your obligations under the contract of sale that you will be required to sign.

TERMS OF SALE: Your responsibilities as a purchaser have been advertised prior to the day of sale and will be read by the Auctioneer at the time of sale. Additional terms may be announced on the day of sale or may be posted at the sale site. The auctioneer will make important announcements regarding the property and your obligations as a purchaser. Please feel free to ask any questions regarding these terms. Failure to comply with any of the terms of sale may cause you to forfeit your deposit and be responsible for the expenses to resell the property, as well as any deficiency incurred.

CONDITION OF PROPERTY: The property will be sold "AS IS." Unless otherwise announced, the sellers make no representations or warranties about the condition of the property. The sellers will not make any repairs.

DEPOSIT: Your deposit will be credited toward the purchase price. If you do not comply with the "TERMS OF SALE," either published or within the contract of sale, you might lose all or part of your deposit. In addition, if you fail to settle for the property you might be obligated to pay the expenses to resell the property, including any deficiency resulting therefrom. If the "TERMS OF SALE" require you to increase your deposit above the amount specified, the Auctioneer will likely accept your personal or business check for the difference on the day of sale. Otherwise, you can bring, wire or messenger certified funds for the increased deposit within the time stated.

EXPENSES: You may be responsible for the expenses of owning the property as of the date of sale or as of the date of settlement, including taxes, utility costs and insurance. You may be required to pay interest on the amount of the purchase price, less the amount of your deposit, from the date of the sale to the date you settle for the property. We recommend that you obtain a fire insurance binder on the property immediately as of the date of sale. The purchaser will pay all of the settlement expenses, including title fees and recording costs.

SETTLEMENT: The settlement or closing period is specified within the terms of sale. If settlement is based on ratification by a Court, the ratification period is typically forty-five to sixty days, but might take longer. You will be expected to settle for the property within the specified time.

FINANCING: It is the purchaser's responsibility to obtain financing. If you plan to use a mortgage to purchase the property, we recommend that you apply for the loan immediately. If the bank must take longer than the specified time to complete the loan, the sellers may extend settlement for a short period if you can provide proof of a loan commitment. If you do not obtain the financing within the specified time for settlement, you will be in default of your contract of sale.

BIDDING PROCEDURE: At the conclusion of the announcement and question period, the auctioneer will solicit bids for the property. Bids are generally made either orally or by raising a hand. Bidding increments are made in amounts acceptable to the auctioneer, who may set a minimum bidding increment as the sale progresses. Any bid that is merely a nominal or fractional advance may be rejected by the auctioneer if in his judgement it may affect the sale injuriously. If a dispute arises between two or more bidders, the auctioneer shall decide in favor of one of the bidders, or immediately re-offer the property.

NOTE: The information contained herein has been obtained from sources deemed reliable and is believed to be accurate. However, no express or implied warranty is made or may be inferred from any such representation.
