LOCATED AT THE INTERSECTION OF MCCARRAN BLVD & LAKESIDE DR

PROPERTY FEATURES

The Village at Lakeridge spans 71,678 square feet across four buildings, housing a blend of office and retail tenants, including well-known businesses in Reno. Due to its prime location at the corner of S. McCarran Boulevard and Lakeside Drive, it stands as one of the most prestigious office and retail parks in Reno. Situated in the Meadowood Submarket, which is Reno’s most sought-after office and retail submarket, the property is in exceptional condition, featuring high-quality finishes and meticulous attention to detail. The buildings provide surface parking, and the property is under professional management. The property benefits from high traffic counts along S. McCarran Boulevard and Lakeside Drive, totalling over 38,000 ADT.

AREA OVERVIEW

Driven by strong existing demographics and significant new residential investment, the trade area offers a compelling growth story for retailers and service tenants. Within a five mile radius, the area draws nearly 263,000 people during the day and over 86,000 households. Supported by high average household incomes exceeding $114,000 and reaching roughly $144,000 within one mile. Indicating substantial spending power in the immediate neighborhood. This established affluence is being reinforced by a robust development pipeline, including the 273 unit Lakeridge Apartments at 6000 Plumas Street, the Lakeridge Golf Course Resort Redevelopment, and multiple additional multifamily and single family projects in the New Southwest subregion. Ongoing projects account for thousands of approved and pending housing units poised to add significant aggregate demand over the next decade..
