PROPERTY OVERVIEW

The iconic Bank of America Building stands at the gateway to Downtown Stuart at the signalized intersection of US-1 and Kanner Highway. This renovated, Bank of America-anchored office building offers exceptional visibility, a welcoming lobby, and ample on-site parking in one of Martin County's most convenient and recognized locations. Functional floor plans are available at below-market rents, with all quoted lease rates offered as gross leases that include electricity, water/sewer, garbage, and A/C maintenance and repair.

Suites 300–305 on the third floor are located directly off the elevator lobby, offering immediate visibility upon entry. The 1,997 SF space features an open reception area, two private offices, an IT/storage closet, built-in counter space, and an open floor area suitable for cubicles or collaborative workstations. There are three entry doors to the suite, and restrooms are conveniently located just outside the entry.
