

Prime Opportunity for Your Business in Dayton, Oregon

Dayton, the up-and-coming town set to become the jewel of Oregon's wine country. Dayton combines small-town charm with big opportunities for business growth. This is your chance to establish your venture in a growing community that's attracting attention from entrepreneurs, tourists, and locals alike. Whether you're launching a boutique shop, upscale restaurant, or service-oriented business, this location offers visibility, charm, and access to a growing customer base.

This commercial space is perfectly situated to position your business for growth. With increasing public/private investment in development, urban renewal and a community dedicated to supporting local businesses. The opportunity for success exists here in Dayton, which is the heart of Willamette Valley Wine Country,

Don't miss out on being a part of Dayton's exciting future!

- Historic restoration of 1911 building
- 12 room boutique hotel on second floor.
- Each space has access to a courtyard for hotel guests and business patrons
- Generous French Vanilla shell

Stuckey Building

304 A Ferry St.
2,086 sq. ft.
304 B Ferry St.
1,409 sq. ft

Harris Building

302 Ferry St.
2,124 sq. ft

Bank of Dayton Building

300 Ferry St
2,121 sq. ft

Jennifer Watson, principal broker licensed in OR BARNES International
j.watson@barnes-international.com
503.954.4790

Evan Denhart, broker licensed in OR BARNES International
e.denhart@barnes-international.com
503.901.1168