TAX BENEFIT*

The amount of time you hold the Qualified Opportunity Fund investment determines the tax benefit you receive. When you make an election to defer the gain, the basis in the Qualified Opportunity Fund investment becomes zero. The Qualified Opportunity Fund basis increases the longer you hold your interest in the Qualified Opportunity Fund.

TAX BENEFIT ON TEMPORARY DEFERRAL

- If you hold your investment in the Qualified Opportunity Fund for at least 5 years, your basis (the amount of your investment) will increase by 10% of the deferred gain.
- If you hold your investment in the Qualified Opportunity Fund for at least 7 years, your basis (the amount of your investment) will increase by an additional 5% of the deferred gain.

ADJUSTMENT OF BASIS AFTER 10 YEARS

- If you hold your investment in the Qualified Opportunity Fund for at least 10 years, you may be able to permanently exclude gain resulting from a qualifying investment when it is sold or exchanged.
- The exclusion occurs if you elect to increase the basis of your Qualified Opportunity Fund investment to its fair market value on the date of the sale or exchange.

leed
certification

- Better for business and the bottom line: LEED buildings have a higher resale value and lower operational costs than non-LEED buildings. They've proven to be top-performing commercial real estate investments. LEED buildings use, on average, 25% less energy than non-LEED buildings
- Better for people: LEED-certified buildings focus on occupant well-being, offering a healthier and more satisfying indoor space while addressing community and public health. 93% of those who work in LEED-certified green buildings say they are satisfied on the job, vs 81% in conventional buildings.
- Better for the environment: LEED buildings use less energy and water, utilize renewable energy and fewer resources, create less waste, and preserve land and habitat.

Professional Background

Since 2002, Martin McDermott has assisted clients in achieving their strategic business goals through the sale, purchase, and leasing of office, retail, industrial, and development properties. While Mr. McDermott represented the United States Postal Service in all its lease renewals from Santa Barbara County through Orange County over four years, most of the focus has been on the private investor. Mr. McDermott co-founded Method Commercial in 2017 to better serve this group, primarily comprised of local family offices, private trusts, high-net worth individuals, non-profits, owner-users, developers, and value-add investors.

Mr. McDermott is an expert at negotiating in difficult positions, including lease renewals, recessionary economies, environmental and other encumbrances, and off-market opportunities. He also has a twenty-three-year track record of uncovering overlooked value.

Mr. McDermott is currently a certified mentor in the Small Business Administration's Los Angeles division SCORE program. From 2013 to 2020, he designed and taught courses for the prestigious Urban Land Institute. Clients benefit from the coaching, leadership, and management skills Mr. McDermott honed working with Fortune 500 business leaders while Director of Business Development at the Ross School of Business at the University of Michigan.

Before co-founding Method Commercial, Mr. McDermott was a leading agent at Grubb & Ellis and a Founding Principal at Avison Young, Los Angeles.

Memberships & Affiliations

Mr. McDermott is a certified Small Business Administration SCORE mentor, a former instructor with the Urban Land Institute and the Los Angeles chapter of the Real Estate Associate Program (REAP), a Certified Commercial Investment Member (CCIM), and holds a California Real Estate Broker's license.

Education

A.B. in Diplomacy and World Affairs and an emphasis in International Environmental Policy from Occidental College. Executive education courses in Sales, Marketing, Strategy and Leadership at The Ross School of Business at the University of Michigan.
