An aerial photograph showing a large-scale construction project in an urban area. In the foreground, a multi-story building is under construction, with a red crane standing prominently. To the left, there's a parking lot with several vehicles. The background features a residential neighborhood and a range of rugged, rocky mountains under a clear blue sky. A road with a yellow center line runs diagonally across the middle of the image.

510 10th Street in Golden, CO, is situated within the Main Street B (MSB) form zone, a designation that encourages pedestrian-oriented, mixed-use development with a vibrant commercial presence. The MSB zoning allows for two- to five-story attached buildings, with ground-level retail or office spaces featuring high transparency storefronts to engage street activity. Future developments in this zoning district are envisioned to support attached nonresidential and mixed-use buildings, research and laboratory developments, office parks, and larger-scale multi-family residential projects. Additionally, zero-foot side setbacks create a cohesive streetscape with strong urban character, ensuring a dynamic and well-integrated commercial corridor.

This prime location in downtown Golden benefits from wide sidewalks, structured parking, and pedestrian-friendly streetscapes, making it an ideal site for retail, office, hospitality, or residential development. The zoning's flexibility allows developers to maximize density while incorporating upper-story setbacks and architectural features that enhance aesthetics and functionality. Proximity to major developments and Golden's thriving urban core presents a compelling opportunity for investors and developers looking to capitalize on the city's growth and high foot traffic.

GOLDEN

Golden, Colorado is rich with culture, outdoor activities, scenic beauty, thriving businesses, and friendly people, but the City's origins are largely thanks to another valuable resource – gold. A small amount of gold discovered in Clear Creek attracted the area's earliest settlers in the mid-19th century and Golden City quickly became an important supply stop for gold miners seeking their fortunes in the adjacent mountains.

Today, with the official name of City of Golden, the town continues to thrive. It offers residents and visitors an abundance of recreational, cultural and culinary opportunities. There is an activity for everyone, from white water kayaking to fine dining to shopping. Spend an afternoon on Clear Creek, climb aboard the trains at the Colorado Railroad Museum, take the Ore Cart Shuttle around town, or drive up Lookout Mountain and visit Buffalo Bill Museum & Grave. Residents can live, work and play in this modern town with an old west flair.
