Property Overview

47 Northumberland Street, Ayr

This 1,438 SF retail unit is positioned in the centre of the Village of Ayr, offering excellent visibility to passing local traffic on Northumberland Street. The plaza is home to established food and service businesses that generate steady daytime and evening visits, creating natural crossover opportunities for neighbouring retailers.

Customers benefit from convenient onsite parking, short-term street parking directly in front, and additional free public parking just steps away at Centennial Park. The surrounding residential neighbourhood features strong household incomes and a loyal local customer base that supports independent businesses. The flexible interior layout allows for a range of retail, restaurant (including take-out), personal service, clinic, or boutique office uses.
