Property Overview

This former CVS store is situated on the southwest corner of Little Road and Hudson Avenue, in the coastal community of Hudson, Fla. The 3.23-acre parcel, with 81 parking spaces, is zoned C-1 (Neighborhood Commercial) and sits across the street from a Publix-anchored shopping plaza. The store, 13,031 square feet of solid block construction, was built in 2007. CVS, which has been adapting to changing consumers' buying patterns, has a lease in place until January 2032. The building sits in the desirable Flood Zone X and suffered no damage from either of the recent hurricanes. The HVAC units are roof-and and all public utilities are on site. The building is fully sprinklered and includes a drive-thru and a bonus second floor storage area of approximately 2,000 square feet.

Location Overview

Hudson is a growing coastal community that rests at the westernmost end of Pasco County, less than an hour's drive from Tampa. Within a 3-mile radius, the population is expected to grow 20 percent over the next 5 years. The average daily traffic count along Little Road is an eyepopping 41,500. Two miles to the south is State Road 52, a major four-lane east-west artery that has been upgraded to alleviate congestion in this booming county of 632,996 residents. The Estates of Beacon Woods, Fairway Oaks and Millwood Village are three deed-restricted residential developments in close proximity. About four miles to the west, sits Hudson Beach, which offers a small beach, fishing pier, and waterfront dining.
