LOCATION OVERVIEW

Steubenville is a city in Jefferson County, Ohio. It's the county seat, and is located along the Ohio River, 33 miles west of Pittsburgh. It had a population of 18,161 at the 2020 census. The city's name is derived from Fort Steuben, a 1786 fort that sat within the city's current limits and was named for Prussian military officer Baron Friedrich Wilhelm von Steuben. Steubenville's economy includes coal mining, power generation, and manufacturing of items like titanium, chemicals, and automobile parts. It is a principal city of the Weirton-Steubenville metropolitan area, which had a population of 116,903 residents in 2020.
