The Neighbourhood

The South London neighbourhood itself boasts a relatively high population and is also one of the more multicultural neighborhoods in London. The high population is largely due to the higher number of apartment buildings, townhouses and semi-detached homes built in the neighbourhood between 1970 and 1980. When compared to other areas of London, this does allow more first time buyers an opportunity to get into the market and own their own home. In the center of the neighbourhood's circling and winding roads is White Oaks Mall, which was built in 1973 and then expanded in 2010. The mall now includes over 185 different stores and services in the mall and is home to big box stores, restaurants and entertainment venues.
