A HISTORIC MASTERPIECE OF BEAUTY AND SCALE

A historic masterpiece of scale, splendor and gorgeous grounds. Located in one of Newton's premier locations This stunningly gracious and spacious landmark Queen Anne Victorian, originally built as a luxury home and retreat for visiting international missionaries, boasts character and detail throughout. Set back on a dramatic, ultra-rare three-quarter-acre-plus lot, the property commands an impressive presence.

The estate's magnificent entertaining spaces—both inside and out—possess a storied legacy of hospitality, effortlessly hosting gatherings and events for over 200 guests. Inside, the home unfolds with breathtaking character, punctuated by multiple intricate fireplaces, oversized rooms with stunning rounded walls and details, and a mesmerizing collection of custom-stained-glass windows. Four generous bedrooms can be found on the second floor, with three to four additional spacious rooms upstairs on the third. For the modern professional, a brilliant, self-contained first-floor wing offers an ideal private home office.

Complete with its own dedicated exterior entrance, a welcoming reception/waiting room, a spacious main office, and a private bath, double doors elegantly seal this workspace away from the main residence to ensure total tranquility. Perfectly positioned on a gorgeous, tree-lined cul-de-sac, this private oasis offers the ultimate in suburban serenity without sacrificing urban convenience. You are mere minutes from the very best of Newton's vibrant dining and boutique shopping. Best of all, a short, scenic walk brings you to the commuter rail, whisking you into Boston's Back Bay in just 25 minutes.
