The Opportunity

Blank canvas in Cedar Hill's emerging downtown!

This 5.585-acre campus sits directly adjacent to Cedar Hill's planned West Midtown district, a city-identified growth corridor stretching from W Belt Line Road to W FM 1382 along Cedar Hill Road. The city's development framework envisions West Midtown as a walkable, mixed-use neighborhood with higher-density housing, civic amenities, and integrated commercial nodes.

For developers, this adjacency significantly reduces speculative risk. The surrounding land is already programmed for higher-intensity use.

Cedar Hill's recent public investments reinforce this trajectory: the Library in a Park campus, Hillside Village mixed-use expansion, and the Downtown Action Plan all signal coordinated reinvestment.

With school use restricted, the value lies in redevelopment.

Potential concepts include: townhomes, senior housing, boutique multifamily, faith-based campus, indoor sports facilities, gymnastics, martial arts, dance studios, or other adaptive reuse projects aligned with the city's growth vision.

Positioned next to a planned mixed-use spine and supported by demonstrated public investment, 700 Bennett Street is a strategic entry point into Cedar Hill's next phase of urban development.

Zoning: OT-Res

Sec. 23-3.13.8. Old Town residential subdistrict.

- (a) Purpose: This subdistrict is intended primarily for residential uses that provide a buffer between the nonresidential uses of the Old Town district and lower density residential uses around it. Certain nonresidential uses that are compatible to the residential uses may be allowed in this subdistrict through an approved conditional use permit. The boundaries of this subdistrict shall be established through the zoning map.
- (b) Authorized uses:
 - (1) Those uses listed for the OT-Old Town district in section 23-4.1.2 (Use Charts) as "P" or "C" are authorized uses; however, any non-residential use within the OT-R-Old Town residential subdistrict shall first obtain a conditional use permit as set forth in division 3.20.
 - (2) In case of new or unlisted uses, a determination of appropriate classification of the form of land use shall be made by the planning and zoning commission by considering the nature and described performance of the proposed use and its compatibility with the uses permitted in the subdistrict and the Old Town district in general.
 - (3) Existing buildings shall be allowed to be established with both residential and business uses in a live/work arrangement in this district only through the conditional use permit approval process unless authorized as a home-bases business in accordance with section 23-4.1.5.
- (c) Old Town residential subdistrict development standards:

Information About Brokerage Services

Texas law requires all real estate licensees to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- ABROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- ASALESAGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

ABROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interest of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
- Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
 - that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
 - that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
 - any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

AS SUBAGENT: A license holder acts as a subagent when aiding a buyer in a transaction without an agreement to represent the buyer. A subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interests of the owner first.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker's duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.
- Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker's services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
